Death of Lieut. Guy

Lieut, John F. Guy of the metropolitan police, for some years past in charge of the third first ward precinct, whose serious illness THE STAR of Saturday noted, died at his residence, No. 1010 New Hampshire avenue, at 4:30 o'clock this morning. He leaves a wife, two children and an adopted daughter. The arrangements and an adopted daughter. The arrangements for the funeral have not yet been made, but Maj. Moore will likely issue an order announcing his death tomorrow. His funeral will be attended by a detail of officers and several Masonic bodies, of which he had been a member for many years. Lieut. Guy was a member of No. 1 Commandery, K. T., of St. John's Lodge and of the Royal Arch Chapter.

The Y. M. C. A. enjoyed a delightful excursion to Glen Echo by boat last evening. It was a large party and a merry one. The amphitheater was the scene of some highly interesting entertainments. A base solo by G. F. Rollings was one of the features of the occasion.

The old man's pension papers were recovered, but the $30 was not to be found. The jury returned a verdict of guilty and the wife was sentenced to six months in jail. The husband was put under bonds to appear for sentence.

PORT JERVIS EXCITED. Determined Men Await Prisoner Foley's Ar

Knots of men gathered about the Erie depot at Port Jervis, N. Y., and peered through the fence lining the tracks as the noon train came in from Goshen vesterday. A rumor had been ens of Alexandria, who is well known as a circulated that Foley, the gambler, implicated ousiness man of the three cities, died this morn- in the assault on Miss Me Mahon last Thursday, would be brought to Port Jervis under military o'clock. Mr. Agnew came to Alexandria guard to give evidence at the inquest. They some years before the late war and, first, as agent of the coal companies and then on his own account carried on the coal business both termined look on their faces, which boded ill for Foley, but Foley did not appear.

District Attorney Hirschberg stepped off the train and told some of his friends that Foley would not be produced until later. The same crowd awaited the 1:42 p.m. train. Some ran around the engine and watched the other side of the train, as though to prevent the taking of Foley to the lockup.

The inquest was begun in the incorporation

Policeman Simon Yaples was called after the jury had been sworn. He gave the names of several railroad men and prominent citizens who had been concerned in the lynching. The men thus named made a hasty exit from the hall. He testified that ex-Chief of Police Mo-Combs was among the men who jumped ou and kicked Lewis, the negro. Others were John Fitzgibbons, Louis Avery, John Egan and Lorenzo Wood. Those who handled the rope were Fitzgibbons, Avery, John Henley, James Kirby and Pat Collier, but the officer did not say who did the actual hanging. After hearing his evidence the inquest was adjourned until this afternoon. Port Jervis is terribly excited over the revelation of the names of some of the participators in the lynching.

Miss McMahon is still in a critical state.

We have reference to James Tharp's "Old Rye Berkeley Whisky," which is one of the most pop-ular brands of liquor on the market. Its true merits have been tested by many Washington-ians, who declare it to be without question the best tonic and by far the healthiest drink as a beverage in this or any other city. It has a national reputation because a large percentage of Congressmen drink no other stimulant except Congressmen drink no other stimulant except "Tharp's Berkeley." Many of our prominent physicians prescribe it in their daily practice, with excellent results. This pure old brand can only be purchased at THARP'S STORE, 818 F street northwest.
